Oliver Tambo International Airport 28 km 40min

DIRECTIONS FROM THE AIRPORT:

Take the R24 towards Johannesburg. Follow the signs to the N3 to Pretoria. Turn off the freeway at the R25 Modderfontein Road (Edenvale) and turn left towards Sandringham / Edenvale and pass the Edenvale General Hospital on your left. Continue and turn right at the traffic lights past the hospital into Wordsworth Way M30W. Continue underneath the M1 past the Wanderers Cricket Stadium situated on your right. At the traffic lights, turn left into Rudd Road. Protea Hotel Wanderers is situated on the corner. The entrance is in Rudd Road.

Unique to the hotel are the surrounding sporting facilities of Wanderers Club that cater for company sports days and outdoor events. The Club also features an upmarket business lounge and classic sports bar that truly illustrates the style and history of this distinctive property.

INTRODUCTION

Enjoy style, comfort and elegance in the leafy surrounds of Northern Johannesburg. Venture into Sandton, Rosebank or the Melrose Arch precinct, offering fine shopping and dining experiences just minutes away. Situated in the prestigious suburb of Illovo, Sandton, the hotel is ideal for both the business and leisure traveler. A mere four minutes' drive away, the M1 freeway allows for easy access to all business centres, the O.R. Tambo International Airport and various other attractions of the great city of Johannesburg.

Hotel facilities have been designed to ensure maximum flexibility, and personalized service and responsiveness to your specific requirements are assured. Soundproofed luxury rooms surround you in earth tones, and the harmonious design principles of Feng Shui add tranquility. Be sure to request a club-facing room when you make your reservation; the view is breathtaking. Each room is modern with a touch of African art and en suite bathrooms.
